When you care enough to choose the very best...

...choose Life Enrichment

where socialization - not isolation at home - promotes health and well being.

Virginia loves to help in the kitchen at Life Enrichment, but whatever she's doing, she always wears a beautiful smile because she loves her days at LEC.

OPEN HOUSE at the new Shelby Life Enrichment Center

Dozens of volunteers led programs to show visitors what participants enjoy every day at LEC.

Participant Kuldip Dula's family cooked & served Indian foods.

Board member Kitty Hoyle played hostess in the pool room.

Wayne Hendricks helped out in the kitchen.

LEC Staffer Marchelle Allen, below, gave manicures in the beauty shop.

LEC Board of Directors Chairman Erin Crow was willing to demonstrate how the whirlpool tub works - in swimsuit, of course.

LEC staffer Debbie Vaughan taught dulcimer classes.
